

THE DOCKUM DRUGSTORE SIT-IN

Enjoy an engaging Zoom presentation from the comfort of your own home. Prisca Barnes will discuss the July 1958 Wichita Dockum Drugstore sit-in, a peaceful protest against the city's practice of segregation. Learn what happened, how it ended and how these protests helped transform the struggle for racial equality. Barnes is the founder of Storytime Village, a nonprofit promoting reading among low-income children.

Remember - this presentation is online only. The Museum and store will be closed. Send your email to museum@salina.org to reserve your place.
